Dear Diary

Today was a horrible day. Lying on the bed of St. Mary's Hospital, I can still feel the pain and agony I had suffered while going to school in the morning. I slipped and fell on the road. I was so nervous that

I became unconscious .
Fortunately, some morning
walkers immediately admitted me to a nearby hospital. When I regained my senses, I found myself in the hospital and with plaster on my left leg. I will never forget this painful incident.

Dear Diary

Today I had a wonderful experience of a flight journey. It was my first flight and we reached Delhi in the evening. I was counting on since we booked the tickets. Initially, I was really scared when the plane was about to take off. I grabbed my mother's hand firmly. Dad saw this and told me that there was no need to get scared. Everything would be fine and I would really enjoy the flight. He was very right.

When I saw the clouds floating near my window, I was excited. After a while, I even saw rainbow making a complete circle called glory. It was magnificent. I was lucky to have a window seat to enjoy the beauty of nature.

I hope our stay in Delhi would be full of fun and thrill.
