INTRODUCTION OF JHARKHAND

- Jharkhand is a state in Eastern India. It's known for its waterfalls, temples, nature, etc.

- It is the 15th largest state by area and 14th largest by population.

- Hindi is the official language of the state.

- The city of Ranchi is its capital and Dumka is its sub-capital.

About Jharkhand

Located in Chotanagpur Plateau region, Jharkhand is immersed in verdant topography.

Jharkhand word literally means 'Land of Jungles' and the people over here live by the maxim of 'Simple living and high thinking'.

Their main festivals 'Karma', 'Sarhul', 'Sohrai' etc. mark their close association with nature.

Let's take you on a guided tour of the land of Bhagwan Birsa Munda.

Ranchi, the state capital of Jharkhand, is referred to as the 'City of waterfalls.'

CLIMATE OF JHARKHAND

- Climate of Jharkhand varies from humid subtropical in the north to tropical wet and dry in the southeast.

- May has the highest temperature ranging from 25-39degree Celsius.

- The states annul rainfall ranges from 1000mm-1500mm in the southwest.

About Formation of Jharkhand

Jharkhand, the 28th state of India was formed on November 15, 2000, after a long-standing tribal movement for statehood. Jharkhand was earlier a part of Bihar, precisely it was then South Bihar, a highly mineral rich area with a substantial tribal population.

Government of Jharkhand

- The Government of Jharkhand also known as the State Government of Jharkhand, or locally as State Government, is the supreme governing authority of the Indian state of Jharkhand and its 24 districts. It consists of an executive, led by the Governor of Jharkhand, a judiciary and a legislative branch.

- Like other states of India, the head of state of Jharkhand is the Governor, appointed by the President of India on the advice of the central government. The post of governor is largely ceremonial. The Chief Minister is the head of government and is vested with most of the executive powers. Ranchi is the capital of Jharkhand and houses the Vidhan Sabha (Legislative Assembly) and the secretariat. The Jharkhand High Court, located in Ranchi, has jurisdiction over the whole state.

- The present Legislative Assembly of Jharkhand is unicameral, consisting of 81 Member of the Legislative Assembly (M.L.A). Its term is five years, unless dissolved earlier.
